This permit may lead to the assignment of a new address. Even if your new approach is attached to an existing address, a significant change in location from the approach it is replacing may trigger a change in address.

By signing, you certify that the information provided herein is accurate to the best of your knowledge, and is sufficient for the County to grant you access to its right-of-way to build your approach. You must begin work within 30 days of this permit's approval, and if you fail to complete it within 6 months, your access expires and you must apply for a new permit.

If you violate the terms and stipulations of this agreement, the County has the right to revoke your access with notice. Further information on the basic terms of access can be found on the Public Works web page.

NOTE: Only one approach is permitted per address unless approved by the County Engineer.
